About the Art Exhibition for a Century of Friendship...

As it is known, it was announced that 2024 would be celebrated as a mutual cultural year in Hungary and Turkiye, as it is the 100th anniversary of the Turkish-Hungarian Friendship Agreement signed in 1923. Following this action decision taken by the relevant institutions of the two countries, we as Kütahya Dumlupınar University could not be expected to remain indifferent to the process, and we were ready to do something.

In the second half of the 19th century, Ottoman-Hungarian relations softened. The Hungarians adopted the idea of independence against Austria, also under the influence of the spread of nationalist ideas spread by the French Revolution of 1789. In 1848-1849, the Hungarians fought a war of independence against Austria and wanted to establish the Hungarian Republic. Lajos Kossuth accelerated the Hungarian independence movement by establishing a new parliament and declared war on Austria in 1848. In order to suppress this attempt, Austria asked for help from Russia, and with the help they received, the Hungarians were defeated and a great massacre was committed against the Hungarians by the Russians.

The idea of our art event was the Hungarian national hero Lajos Kossuth. Lajos Kossuth is a very significant figure in 19th century Hungarian history. He lived in the Ottoman Empire as a political refugee between 1849 and 1851. Kossuth and his entourage lived in Kütahya from the spring of 1850 to the autumn of 1851. Most of his entourage stayed in the garrison in the city. During this time, he lived in the City Hall (Börekçiler Mahallesi, Macar Sokak), which is now officially a museum. In the museum, there is still an exhibition of the Hungarian National Museum, which tells the story of this great politician. Ottoman-Hungarian relations improved further in the following years, and on December 18, 1923, a Treaty of Friendship was signed between the Hungary and young Republic of Turkiye. In 2023, the 100th anniversary of this agreement will be celebrated and 2024 was declared the mutual year of culture in Turkiye and Hungary.

We began from this beautiful historical point and took the initiative to open an art exhibition consisting of the artworks of Hungarian and Turkish artists through our faculty of fine arts. I would like to thank all the Hungarian and Turkish artists who participated in the exhibition, and our Governor of Kütahya, Mr. Musa Işın, who supported us in obtaining the necessary permissions to open an exhibition at the Lajos Kossuth Museum. On behalf of Kütahya Dumlupınar University, I would like to thank Miss Anna Pifka as the curator of the show, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hami Onur Bingöl, Assoc. Prof. Eren Evin Kılıçkaya and I also would like to give special thanks to Res. Asst. Dilara Merve Kaçmaz who provided great support in the announcement of the exhibition process and its catalogue with her adorable beautiful designs.

I hope to be together again in many events symbolizing the eternity of Hungarian and Turkish friendship and with the hope that the Hungarian-Turkish friendship will be celebrated again in many centuries to come.

Those who pay attention to their surroundings are able to make essential things visible. In recent months, as we prepared for the exhibition 'Art for the friendship of a century' in the occasion of the Hungarian-Turkish Cultural Season for 2024, an imaginary journey began. Now Turkish and Hungarian artists, visitors are here. We can meet each other through the artworks.

The venue of the exhibition is an exciting historical place for us. Kossuth Museum symbolize hospitality. In 1849, Sultan Abdül Medjid I welcomed Lajos Kossuth, the Governor-president of the Kingdom of Hungary, who was fleeing the despair of the Hungarian Revolution of 1848. The artworks make it possible Hungarian artists are present in Kütahya, through the visuality of iconic buildings, streets, Lake Balaton – often referred to as the "Hungarian Sea" – and other landscapes, including natural phenomena created by light.

In several cases, the artists move away from realistic, direct expression as they seek new dimensions and layers of time and space. Elements like nature and light are frequently used as 'materials' captured with modern tools. Many of the artists here seek nearness to nature and still regard it as an ancient source for their creations. The only variable factor is technology, what is used with preference nowadays, during a creative processes. The exhibition would not have been possible without the technology, connections, and most importantly, the relationships we have. It is important to highlight that all the images here reflect each other and the intelligent use of technology allows us to share and exchange experiences more easily. Firstly, I would like to express my gratitude to Prof. Dr. Suleyman KIZILTOPRAK, Rector of Kutahya Dumlupinar University, for making the exhibition possible. Furthermore, I would like to extend my thanks to the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of Turkey and the Kutahya Kossuth Museum, which provided the conditions for the opening of the exhibition – serving as an exhibition hall for the first time in history. Thanks to Dilara Merve KAÇMAZ, the university's talented designer, for creating the exhibition's visual materials.

Thank you very much for the teamwork throughout the inquiry, as well as for the continuous consultations and immediate, positive feedbacks from Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hami Onur Bingöl, Lecturer in the Faculty of Fine Arts, specializing in Cartoons and Animation.

Thanks to the work of Ágnes Haász, visual artist and head of the Hungarian Electrographic Art Association. Many talented Hungarian artists are participating in the exhibition through her efforts. József Szurcsik, a visual artist and Associate Professor in the Department of Graphics at the Hungarian University of Fine Arts, also actively shared his insights and collaborated on the selection process. Both of them contributed to the exhibition with their artworks.

In our imagination, we have traveled to you in Turkey. Thank you for the opportunity of we can celebrating together the Hungarian-Turkish Cultural Year!
